Wilhelmina Bobo Smith was a 1965 graduate of South Carolina state University. She later earned a master's degree from Georgia Sate University. After graduating from South Carolina State, Wilhelmina began an outstanding career as an educator; culminating in 37 years as a social studies teacher with the Atlanta Public School System. During her tenure she had a profound impact on thousands of students by motivating them to achieve their highest potential. In fact, many of her former students today credit her for their success in their professional careers.

To honor her legacy, a Scholarship Fund has been established within the SCSU Foundation. This fund will award scholarships to deserving students aspiring to become teachers.
